Fraudulently issued ISO Certificates by impersonating as QCS

It has come to our notice that some individuals or entities with vested interests and malafide intentions and to cheat the public, have issued fraud certificates in the name of QCS management Pvt Ltd . This they have done by impersonating as QCS and misusing the logos of QCS and also logos of our former accreditation board. This unethical act tantamount to culpable criminal offense as per indian penal code and also international legal jurisprudence by the offending individual .QCS will initiate strong legal action with full force of law against the alleged culprit to defame our goodwill and market reputation for issuing false ISO certificates in our name to the public by impersonating as QCS.

Therefore we will like to caution the public from falling prey to such scam stars by checking the authenticity of our certificates from the public register being maintained on our company website at www.qcspl.com where we maintain an updated list of all our bona fide certificate holders. If the records of any certificate is found to be missing from our public register, then it should be treated as withdrawn/ cancelled/ suspended or fraudulently issued in our name. If the certificate is issued within the last one year and still not shown on our register, then it should be definitely treated as a doubtful case where QCS have either not received the payment of the certificate from the concerned party and or it is fraudulently issued. So, Members of the public are hereby advised to write an e- mail to qcsert56@yahoo.com to check the authenticity of its ISO certificates in case of any doubts.

We maintain a public list of fraudulently issued ISO certificates by impersonating QCS and also some other certificates which is of doubtful integrity .
